WHO IS RACHEL CAREY?

Rachel Carey is the powerhouse woman. In 3 short years she built her business from zero to 8 figures and is still growing. Now she wants to help other SME's and business owners who are struggling with self-belief, confidence and burnout.

Her commitment to the NDIS sector is deeply personal, born from first-hand experiences within her own family. This fuels her drive to act as an authentic leader, continuously engaging in self-development, and delivering a service of which her family can be proud.

It's not where Rachel is today that should inspire you, but rather the road that she has travelled to get here. If there is one thing Rachel wants to leave you with; that is the belief that you can do anything you set your mind to. And she wants to empower you to get there.
